Overview of the Bankruptcy Process

INTRODUCTION

This manual is prepared for individuals who have decided to proceed with a bankruptcy filing without the assistance of legal counsel. The Court strongly encourages individuals to seek the services of competent counsel. Bankruptcy proceedings are complex legal proceedings. The results of these proceeding will have long term consequences. The chances of successfully completing the process are much greater if you have an attorney, especially for a chapter 13 case.

However, if an individual chooses to proceed without an attorney (which is referred to as filing pro se) the information contained in this document may be helpful. Please be aware that Bankruptcy Court employees are unable to provide legal advice. The procedural steps in the filing of a bankruptcy petition and the management of a case are explained in this manual for your convenience.

LOCATING LEGAL AUTHORITY/STATUTORY SOURCES

The federal bankruptcy law is found under Title 11 of the United States Code. Copies of the United States Code are available at public libraries and may be found online at www.law.cornell.edu/topics/bankruptcy.html. There are also federal and local rules and forms that apply to every bankruptcy case. The federal rules and forms are available on the same website. The local rules and forms are available on the Court's website: www.mieb.uscourts.gov.

THE EFFECT OF REPEAT FILINGS

- Automatic Stay

If you have filed a bankruptcy petition within the previous 12 months, you should be aware that the automatic stay provided under 11 U.S.C. §362(a) may not take effect in another case or may be of limited duration. The stay is operative for only 30-days if you had a prior bankruptcy case pending that was dismissed within the previous 12-months. The stay does not go into effect at all if you had two cases that were pending but dismissed in the prior 12-months. Read the section of the law noted above if you have any questions or to determine whether or not this may apply to you.

- Discharge

If you have filed a bankruptcy case previously and received a discharge, the law limits how often you may file again and receive another discharge of your debts.

BEFORE FILING FOR BANKRUPTCY

The initial goal of bankruptcy is to relieve an individual of unmanageable debt and, through the use of the allowed exemptions, to leave the individual with the means to support himself or herself and family. The bankruptcy law requires that a debtor seek credit counseling before filing a bankruptcy petition. The Office of the United States Trustee has an approved list of credit counseling agencies for each state. This list is updated regularly; check the Credit Counseling link on the court's website for the current list. The lists for each of the other states are also available on the website.

You must attend credit counseling either in person, over the telephone, or by the internet. If a repayment plan was developed for you by the credit counseling agency, the repayment plan as well as the certificate must be filed with the bankruptcy petition.

While the Bankruptcy Court does not recommend it, a bankruptcy petition preparer may assist you with your paperwork. However, a preparer is NOT an attorney and is prohibited from giving legal advice. Furthermore, a petition preparer must comply with Title 11 U.S.C. §110, provide his/her tax identification number, and disclose any compensation you paid for the services. A preparer will generally have the forms available for you and assist you in completing the routine information; but remember, he or she is not an attorney and cannot and should not be advising you on what chapter to file, what exemptions to claim, how secured debt may be affected, and generally how your case will be resolved.

If someone tells you not to disclose to the Bankruptcy Court that they helped you, you and that person are breaking federal law and there could be serious consequences for you. If you had help in preparing your documents you MUST disclose that information to the Court.

If you do plan to file a bankruptcy petition without assistance, the first step in the process is to determine which type of bankruptcy is best for you: Chapter 7, 11 or 13. Basically, in a Chapter 7 you turn your nonexempt assets over to a trustee who then liquidates, or sells them, to pay your creditors. In a Chapter 13, you devise a plan in which you pay creditors back a percentage of what you owe them over a period of up to five years. Note: The Court's Local Rules have a special section devoted to Chapter 13 cases. Go to www.mieb.uscourts.gov/court-info/local-rules-and-orders for additional information. A Chapter 11 generally is filed by individuals who have debts that exceed the amounts allowed under a Chapter 13 [See 11 U.S. C. §109(e)]. Similar to a Chapter 13 case, in a Chapter 11 the debtor devises a plan to pay creditors back over a period of time. Chapter 11 is intended primarily for business debtors, so individuals may find the reporting and accounting requirements and the potential for the creation of a creditor committee to be unduly burdensome and expensive.

You then need to secure the proper forms. The required forms for Chapter 7 are included in this package. The forms for the other chapters are available from any legal stationery store or you can download them for free at www.mieb.uscourts.gov. Also available on the Court's website, is an instructional manual regarding bankruptcy forms for individuals.

PREPARING THE PAPERWORK

Once you have decided on which chapter to file, you must complete the forms. Gather all your paperwork together, past and present bills, collection notices, etc., as well as your pay stubs and the prior year's tax return. The first pages, referred to as the "petition pages," are self-explanatory; names(s), address(es), telephone number(s), social security number(s), chapter you wish to file, number of creditors, estimated assets and estimated debt, and the like. You must answer all the questions that apply to you.

You must sign the petition on the signature line for the debtor. If this is a joint petition, a husband and a wife, then both parties must sign. An individual and a corporation cannot file a joint petition; however, if you own an unincorporated business then you may include the business name and the debts it owes in your petition. For example, John Doe runs a deli called The Corner Deli. It is not a corporation. He could file bankruptcy as John Doe, d/b/a (Doing Business As) The Corner Deli, and include any debts the business owes since he is personally responsible for those debts. If the business was incorporated, it would have to file its own separate bankruptcy petition with the assistance of an attorney.

Once you file your bankruptcy petition, the Court will send a notice of a meeting of creditors to all the creditors you list on your matrix. The Court requires that you provide a typed list of all of these creditors in a specific format so that the names and addresses can be scanned into the computer. This is called a mailing matrix. The mailing matrix includes only the names and addresses of your creditors only; do not include account numbers, page numbers, case numbers, the debtor's name, etc. The names and addresses must be single space, in one column from the top to the bottom of the page. The mailing matrix must be typed on plain, white paper, in a single column, no closer than one inch from the top or bottom edge of the paper. Each creditor address must be no more than five (5) lines; each line must be 40 characters or fewer in length, and each name/address block must be separated by a least two (2) blank line. Avoid extra or stray marks anywhere on the paper. Be sure to include all creditors listed in your schedules.

The next several sections of the bankruptcy petition are called the schedules. There are schedules

A through J. Your answer to every question must be accurate and completely honest because you are swearing under the penalty of perjury that each statement you are making is truthful. Title 18 of the United States Code provides penalties, including fines and jail time, for falsifying bankruptcy schedules, concealing assets and other bankruptcy related crimes.

- Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) lists property interests that are involved in a bankruptcy case. All individuals filing for bankruptcy must list everything they own or have a legal or equitable interest in. Legal or equitable interest is a broad term and includes all kinds of property interests in both tangible and intangible property, whether or not anyone else has an interest in that property. The information in this form is grouped by category and includes several examples for many items. Note that those examples are meant to give you an idea of what to include in the categories. They are not intended to be complete lists of everything within that category. Make sure you list everything you own or have an interest in.
- Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C) Before you fill out this form, you must learn which set of exemptions you can use. In Michigan, you must pick either the state exemptions provided by state law (MCL § 600.5451) or the federal exemptions provided by the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 522). You must use either all state exemptions or all federal exemptions; you cannot pick some state and some federal. Using the property and values that you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list on this form the property that you claim as exempt. If your spouse is filing with you, you both must use the same set of exemptions. In a joint case, both debtors must file a separate Schedule C.
- Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property (Official Form 106D) list all creditors who have a claim that is secured by your property, or anyone who has judgment liens, garnishments, statutory liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other security interests against your property. When listing creditors who have secured claims, be sure to include all of them.
- Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims (Official Form 106E/F) lists everyone who has an unsecured claim against you when you file your bankruptcy petition, unless you have already listed them on Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Your Property (Official Form 106D). List all unsecured creditors in each part of the form in alphabetical order as much as possible. Even if you plan to pay a creditor, you must list that creditor. In bankruptcy cases, priority unsecured claims are those debts that the Bankruptcy Code requires to be paid before most other unsecured claims are paid. The most common priority unsecured claims are certain income tax debts and past due alimony or child support. Nonpriority unsecured claims are those debts that generally will be paid after priority unsecured claims are paid. The most common examples of nonpriority unsecured claims are credit card bills, medical bills, and educational loans.
- Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G) lists your ongoing leases and certain contracts. You must list all agreements that may be executory contracts or unexpired leases, even if they are listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B). Executory contracts are contracts between you and someone else in which neither you nor the other party has performed all of the requirements by the time you file for bankruptcy. Unexpired leases are leases that are still in effect; the lease period has not yet ended.
- Schedule H: Your Codebtors (Official Form 106H) lists all of your codebtors and the creditors to whom you owe the debt. For example, if someone cosigned for the car loan that you owe, you must list that person on this form.

- Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 106I) will give the details about your employment and monthly income as of the date you file this form. If you are married and your spouse is living with you, include information about your spouse even if your spouse is not filing with you. If you are separated and your spouse is not filing with you, do not include information about your spouse.
- Schedule J: Your Expenses (Official Form 106J) provides an estimate of the monthly expenses, as of the date you file for bankruptcy, for you, your dependents, and the other people in your household whose income is included on Schedule I: Your Income (Official Form 106I). If you are married and are filing individually, include your non-filing spouse's expenses unless you are separated. If you are filing jointly and Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 keep separate households, Debtor 2 must complete and include Schedule J-2: Expenses for Separate Household of Debtor 2 (Official Form 106J-2).
- Summary of Your Assets and Liabilities and Certain Statistical Information (Official Form 106Sum) After you fill out all of the Schedules, and Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income, complete this form to report the totals of certain information that you listed.
- Declaration About an Individual Debtor's Schedules (Official Form 106Dec) is signed by the debtor(s) attesting under penalty of perjury that the documents you are filing with the Court are "true and correct to my best knowledge, information and belief."
- Declaration Under Penalty of Perjury for Debtor(s) without Attorney (Local Form) indicates whether the debtor has had assistance with the preparation of the bankruptcy filing. If anyone helped you, including a friend or relative, you need to list that person on this form.
- Bankruptcy Petition Preparer's Notice, Declaration, and Signature (Official Form 119) is filed only if you had the assistance of a bankruptcy petition preparer. The petition preparer completes and signs the form under the penalty of perjury. In addition, there is a place for your signature.
- Statement of Financial Affairs for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 107) provides a summary of your financial history over certain periods of time before you file for bankruptcy. If you are an individual in a bankruptcy case, you must fill out this statement. 11 U.S.C. § 521(a) and Bankruptcy Rule 1007(b)(1). If you are married and your spouse is not filing this case with you, you need only provide information on this form about your spouse if you are filing under chapter 12 or chapter 13 and are not separated from your spouse.
- Statement of Intention for Individuals Filing Under Chapter 7 (Official Form 108) If you are an individual filing under chapter 7, you must fill out the Statement of Intention for Individuals Filing Under Chapter 7 (Official Form 108) if: (1) creditors have claims secured by your property, or (2) you have leased personal property and the lease has not expired. If you have property that is collateral (or security) for a claim, you must state what you intend to do with that property. You may choose either to surrender the property to the creditor, or retain the property.
- Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) must be filed by individual Chapter 7 debtors. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income for households of the same size in Michigan. If your income is not above the median, there is no presumption of abuse and you do not have to fill out Form 122A-2.

There are three check boxes at the top of first page of the Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) form:

1. There is no presumption of abuse;
 2. The calculation to determine if a presumption of abuse applies will be made under Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2); and
 3. The Means Test does not apply now because of qualified military service but it could apply later.
- Statement of Exemption from Presumption of Abuse Under 707(b)(2) (Official Form 122A-1 Supp) determines whether you are exempted from the presumption of abuse because you do not have primarily consumer debts or because you have provided certain military or homeland defense services. If you have primarily non-consumer debts or have qualifying military service, this form must be filed. This supplemental form will be filed with the Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1).
 - Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2) is only filed by debtors whose monthly income is above the applicable state median.
 - Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 122C-1) must be filed by Chapter 13 debtors. In Chapter 13 cases the Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income (Official Form 122 C-2) form is used to determine your disposable income and how much you can pay creditors under a 3- or 5-year plan.
 - Chapter 11 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122B) must be filed by individual Chapter 11 debtors.

Much like a tax form, the Official Form 122 forms are complex and will require much effort to complete accurately. To complete the form you will need to know the median family income in your location and the IRS guidelines for expenses and allowances. That information can be found through a link on the Court's web site www.mieb.uscourts.gov under Means Testing Information (Census Bureau and IRS data).

FILING FEE

Every bankruptcy petition requires a filing fee. The fee amounts are available on the Court's website. Fees are payable by cash (exact amount) certified check or money order. Personal checks, credit cards and debit cards are not accepted. If you are unable to pay the fee upfront there are two possible options. You may file an Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments or you may file an Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Chapter 7 only). Both application forms are available in this packet, on the Court's web site or from the Clerk's Office.

To qualify for a waiver of the filing fee you must earn less than 150% of the poverty level; this information is published annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The poverty level amounts are available at www.uscourts.gov. If you think that you qualify, you must complete and file the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived which must be approved by a judge. If your application is denied, you must pay the fee in full or you may request to pay the fee in installments by filing a motion. If you miss one of the installment payments, or if the fee is not paid in full, your case will be dismissed and no part of the filing fee can be returned.

SOME DETAILS OF THE BANKRUPTCY PROCESS

- Meeting of Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §341(a)

Shortly after your bankruptcy is filed, the Court will send you and all creditors listed on your matrix a “Notice of Chapter ____ Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors, & Deadlines.” In the space after ‘Chapter’, the notice will indicate which chapter you filed: 7, 11, or 13. This notice alerts creditors that you have filed a bankruptcy petition and that they may be prohibited from taking certain actions against you or your property to collect a debt. It also informs them of key deadlines such as

- (1) the time within which they have to file a Proof of Claim, if it appears that there will be assets that can be liquidated to pay creditors;
- (2) the time within which to file a complaint objecting to the discharge of their particular debt under 11 U.S.C. §523(a) or objecting to the discharge of all debts under 11 U.S.C. §727(a) and,
- (3) the time within which to object to the property you claimed as exempt property (your Schedule C).

The notice has important information that you should read.

The notice of the meeting of creditors informs you and the creditors of a specific date, time and location for the meeting of creditors, which you must attend and your creditors are invited to attend if they wish. The notice also informs everyone that a trustee has been assigned to the case, and the name, address and other contact information for the trustee. It is the trustee’s role to examine you at the meeting of creditors regarding your financial situation and to determine if you have any assets that may not be exempt.

You must bring two forms of identification with you to the meeting of creditors, such as a driver’s license and social security card. The trustee will examine these to verify that you are who you say you are in the bankruptcy petition. The trustee will ask you to verify that you completed the petition and schedules and that they are accurate and complete. He or she will then ask certain questions about the information you provided on your petition and the assets that you have listed in the petition. In a Chapter 7 case, if the trustee is satisfied that you have disclosed everything and if there are no assets that he or she can sell, then he or she will file a “no asset report” with the Court. This tells the Court and everyone that the trustee has examined you and has found no non-exempt assets that can be sold for the benefit of your creditors. All meetings of creditors are recorded on audio tape. The trustee will administer an oath to each debtor in which the debtor swears to answer all questions truthfully. Be aware that failing to answer any question truthfully may subject you to federal prosecution for perjury.

▪ Required Documentation

The law requires that you provide the trustee, at least 7-days before the scheduled meeting of creditors with the documentation listed below. Copies of these documents must be sent directly to your trustee and you must bring the originals, if available, with you to your meeting of creditors. Also, if a creditor requests a copy of your tax return at least 5 days before the meeting of creditors, then you must also provide a copy of your return to that creditor. You must be sure to delete or black out certain private information, such as the names of your children, account numbers (except for the last 4-digits), dates of birth (except the year), and you must only give the last four digits of any social security numbers. Failure to provide the required documentation to your trustee may result in dismissal of your bankruptcy case. And remember, dismissal may impact the imposition or length of the automatic stay in any subsequent case filed within 12 months.

Required documents:

- Evidence of income for the 60 days before you filed your bankruptcy – if unemployed, provide statement of how you support yourself (including government assistance)
- Income tax returns for the last 2 years (federal, state and city, if applicable) – if you haven’t filed taxes, provide statement explaining why
- Bank statements for the 90 days before you filed your bankruptcy petition
- Certificates of title for any vehicles/boats
- A current statement from each secured creditor (mortgage, car loan, etc.) stating the amount you owe to them
- Recorded mortgages for any real estate
- Recorded deeds and land contracts for any real estate
- Current property tax statements for any real estate
- Divorce judgments and property settlement agreements for the last year
- The name, address and telephone number of each holder of a Domestic Support Obligation (e.g. alimony or child support)

▪ After the Meeting of Creditors – Chapter 7 cases

Once the meeting of creditors ends you may not hear from the trustee again unless he or she learns of something that raises a question that requires information from you or some further investigation. As noted above, the creditors and the trustee have a 60-day deadline to file complaints concerning your discharge. The 60 days run from the date of the meeting of creditors. They may seek an extension of that time by filing a motion with the court. Any pleading filed with the court will be sent to you so that you are aware of it and have the opportunity to respond, if you think it is necessary. Once that 60-days has passed and no extension has been granted, the Court will enter a discharge, provided all other requirements have been met (fee paid in full, all necessary documents filed, meeting of creditors held and closed, trustee report filed, financial management course completed and certificate filed with Court). Basically, the discharge order relieves you of any personal liability for all dischargeable debts list in your bankruptcy.

- Financial Management Course

The bankruptcy law requires that all individual debtors attend an approved course in financial management after they file bankruptcy and before they can receive a discharge. The Office of the United States Trustee has approved companies which provide financial management courses. A list of the approved providers of these courses can be found on this Court's website www.mieb.uscourts.gov under the link Debtor Education. Upon completion of the financial management course you must file Official Form 423 Certification About a Financial Management Course. Please note that this requirement is different from the credit counseling that you completed prior to filing your bankruptcy case. The financial management certificate must be filed to receive a discharge of debts.

- Bankruptcy Crime

If you hide assets or property from the trustee, or fail to disclose information accurately and completely on your schedules, you may be prosecuted by the United States Attorney for a bankruptcy crime under Title 18 of the United States Code.

The trustee represented the interests of the creditors. You are required by law to cooperate with the trustee and to disclose all assets, wherever located and by whoever held, in which you may have any interest. Failure to cooperate with the trustee may cause the trustee to file a complaint objecting to your discharge under 11 U.S.C. §727(a). The bankruptcy judge would hear any complaint filed against you by any party. Please see the sections below for more information about objections to discharge.

- The Discharge Order - Chapter 7

Once the time to file complaints objecting to the discharge under 11 U.S.C. §523(a) and §727(a) has elapsed (60-days from the meeting of creditors plus any extensions of time granted by the Court), the Court will enter a discharge order that effectively relieves the debtor from personal liability for any dischargeable debts. The discharge is mailed to the debtor and to all creditors.

Remember, a discharge will only be entered if you have completed all the required steps; attended the U.S. Trustee-approved credit counseling before filing; attended the meeting of creditors and any continuations of the meeting; complied with all reasonable requests from the trustee; filed all of the documents required under 11 U.S.C. §521; completed a U.S. Trustee-approved financial management course; and lastly, any dischargeability/discharge complaints filed against you in the bankruptcy court were resolved in your favor.

- What Are Dischargeable Debts?

11 U.S.C. §523, entitled “Exceptions to discharge,” and §727, entitled “Discharge,” relate to debts that are not discharged in bankruptcy. A reading of §727(b) gives some indication of what are dischargeable debts:

“(b) Except as provided in section 523 of this title, a discharge under subsection (a) of this section discharges the debtor from all debts that arose before the date of the order for relief under this chapter, and any liability on a claim that is determined under section 502 of this title as if such claim had arisen before the commencement of the case, whether or not a proof of claim based on any such debt or liability is filed under section 501 of this title, and whether or not a claim based on any such debt or liability is allowed under section 502 of this title. “

Section 523 lists nineteen (19) types of debt that are not discharged, for example:

- taxes within a specified period of time;
- debts based on fraud or false representation;
- student loans;
- domestic support obligations and expenses incurred in the course of a divorce or separation agreement;
- fines and penalties owed to government units, such as parking or traffic tickets;
- consumer debts owed a single creditor aggregating $500 or more for luxury goods and services within 90-days before the filing and cash advances within 70-days before the filing;
- debts due to embezzlement or larceny;
- debts for willful and malicious injury to a person or property;
- death or injury caused while driving a vehicle under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- restitution

POSSIBLE EVENTS

▪ Objection to Exemptions

The trustee or a creditor may object to the exemptions you claimed. You would have to respond in writing to the objection and appear at a hearing in Court to represent your position. Note that by local rule a party filing a pleading is required to serve that pleading on all interested parties and file a certificate of service that service was made with the name and address of each party served. Service can be done by a person over the age of 18, but usually it is done by sending the pleading to the other party via first class mail.

▪ Complaint Objecting to Discharge or Dischargeability of a Debt

The trustee or a creditor may file a complaint objecting to the discharge under either or both the discharge sections (11 U.S.C. §§523 and 727). The complaint is actually a civil action and all the related discovery motions are available to the parties. A party may conduct depositions, request answers to interrogatories, request a stipulation to the facts, etc. You would need to respond appropriately to whatever motion or request a party might file. As noted in the paragraph above, you must file a certificate of service indicating to whom you sent your response.

- Reaffirmation Agreements

11 U.S.C. §524(c) allows you and a creditor to enter into an agreement, called a reaffirmation or reaffirmation agreement. This is a legally enforceable document in which you promise to repay all or a portion of a debt that otherwise may have been discharged in your bankruptcy case. Oftentimes the agreement involves an automobile in which the creditor has a security interest.

To be valid and enforceable, a reaffirmation agreement must be filed with the court. The reaffirmation must be filed with the court before the discharge is granted. If an individual is not represented by an attorney during the negotiating of the reaffirmation agreement, then the Court must hold a hearing to approve the agreement. The Court must find that the reaffirmation does not impose an undue hardship on the debtor or the debtor's dependents and that it is in the best interest of the debtor. The debtor can rescind the agreement prior to the discharge being granted or within 60 days after the agreement is filed with the Court, whichever is later, by giving notice to the other party to the agreement, i.e., the creditor.

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary; they are not required by bankruptcy law or any other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt. Note that if you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any deficiency or other remaining debt.

BEFORE you file bankruptcy, you MUST take a credit counseling course.

If you file bankruptcy without taking credit counseling first, YOUR CASE MAY BE DISMISSED and you may not be able to reinstate it.

A list of approved credit counseling agencies is available on the Court's website:

Bankruptcy Petition Preparers

- People who advertize themselves as “bankruptcy petition preparers” are not lawyers and are not authorized to give you legal advice when preparing your petition.
- Their role is strictly to complete your forms for you with the information that you provide to them.

If a bankruptcy petition preparer give you advice about what papers are legally appropriate and what should or should not be included on schedules, be very cautious about taking their advice. Petition preparers are not attorneys and you should not rely solely on information they give you.

- If you do use a bankruptcy petition prepare, you must disclose their name and information to the court. If you do not, there may be serious consequences, including denial of a discharge

Most of the required forms in a bankruptcy case are available for free on the internet at:

~ <http://www.uscourts.gov/FormsAndFees/Forms/BankruptcyForms.aspx> (federal forms)

~ <http://www.mieb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms> (local forms)

Note: You can also get the required forms for a Chapter 7 bankruptcy in person at the Intake Counter at the Clerk’s Office (211 W. Fort Street, 17th Floor, Detroit, MI 48226)

 You do not need to hire a bankruptcy petition preparer to get the required forms *****

Completing the required forms correctly can be complicated and confusing and the Clerk’s Office strongly recommends that you obtain the advice of an attorney. Bankruptcy petition preparers cannot give you such legal advice.

By Court order, a bankruptcy petition preparer CANNOT charge you more than $100 for his/her services.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

2010 APR 20 P 3:14

In re:

Maximum Allowable Fee Chargeable
by a Bankruptcy Petition Preparer

Administrative Order
NO: 10-21

ORDER REGARDING MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE FEE CHARGEABLE
BY A
BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

Section 110 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. Section 110, provides for the disallowance and turnover of any fee found to be in excess of the value of services rendered by a bankruptcy petition preparer. In order to provide prospective debtors and petition preparers with information about what would be an excessive fee for services rendered by a bankruptcy petition preparer in this district, the bankruptcy judges of this district have decided to enter this Administrative Order, pursuant to Sections 105 and 110 of the Bankruptcy Code. In establishing a presumptive maximum allowable fee chargeable by a bankruptcy petition preparer, the bankruptcy judges of this district have relied upon their collective experience concerning fees actually charged by petition preparers in this district, as well as the limited nature of the services that bankruptcy petition preparers may perform under Section 110 of the Bankruptcy Code and state law limitations on the unauthorized practice of law.

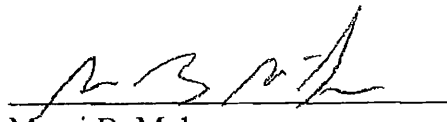

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

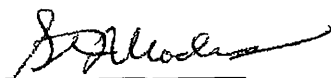

1. The presumptive maximum allowable fee chargeable by a bankruptcy petition preparer in any case is $100.

Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A)

If you cannot afford to pay the full filing fee when you first file for bankruptcy, you may pay the fee in installments. However, in most cases, you must pay the entire fee within 120 days after you file, and the court must approve your payment timetable. Your debts will not be discharged until you pay your entire fee.

Do not file this form if you can afford to pay your full fee when you file.

If you are filing under chapter 7 and cannot afford to pay the full filing fee at all, you may be qualified to ask the court to waive your filing fee. See Application to Have Your Chapter 7 Filing

Fee Waived (Official Form 103B).

If a bankruptcy petition preparer helped you complete this form, make sure that person fills out the Bankruptcy Petition Preparer's Notice, Declaration, and Signature (Official Form 119); include a copy of it when you file this application.

This form includes a proposed order for use by the court in considering the application. The court may modify the form of the order or use its own version of the order.

Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/22

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee

- I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page.

The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an Individual filing for bankruptcy and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ IO1(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of the Bankruptcy Code:

- Chapter 7 - Liquidation
- Chapter 11 - Reorganization
- Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen
- Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$78	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged.
The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law.
Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

- most taxes;
- most student loans;
- domestic support and property settlement obligations;

- most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

- fraud or theft;
- fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;
- intentional injuries that you inflicted; and
- death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167 filing fee
+	$571 administrative fee
	$1,738 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200 filing fee
+	$78 Administrative fee
	$278 total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235 filing fee
+	$78 Administrative fee
	$313 total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

- If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.
- All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: <http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: <http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING LIST OF CREDITORS

The Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan is totally dependent on a computer system called CM/ECF. As part of this system, the List of Creditors is scanned and uploaded which is used for mailing court notices. In order to ensure that the case can be properly scanned, the design of the List of Creditors was revised and the following guidelines were effective April 20, 1993:

- (1) The names, addresses and zip codes of the Debtor(s) and counsel for the Debtor(s) shall not appear on the List of Creditors;
- (2) The bankruptcy petition case number shall not appear on the List of Creditors;
- (3) The List of Creditors shall be typed in one of the following types: (a) Courier 10; (b) Prestige Elite or (c) Letter Gothic;
- (4) The names and addresses of all creditors shall be typed in a single column on each page with margins no less than one-half inch; NOTE: Do not include any account numbers with the names of the creditors;
- (5) Each line shall be not more than 40 characters in length;
- (6) Each name and address shall consist of not more than five (5) lines;
- (7) There shall be at least two blank lines between each name and address entry.

Please refer to L.B.R. 1007-2 for other requirements regarding any department or agency of the United States that is included on the List of Creditors.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Brief description of the property and line on Schedule A/B that lists this property	Current value of the portion you own <small>Copy the value from Schedule A/B</small>	Amount of the exemption you claim <small>Check only one box for each exemption.</small>	Specific laws that allow exemption

3. Are you claiming a homestead exemption of more than $189,050?

(Subject to adjustment on 4/01/25 and every 3 years after that for cases filed on or after the date of adjustment.)

- No
- Yes. Did you acquire the property covered by the exemption within 1,215 days before you filed this case?
 - No
 - Yes

To find the IRS standards, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This information may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 3 and do not deduct any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form 122A-1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

Questions?

HOW IT WORKS

First, using the court's form, the Debtor(s) must make a written request for DeBN. This request can be made at any time during the case. The clerk's office will then create the DeBN account and all applicable notices and orders will be emailed to the Debtor(s).

Along with the option to request DeBN, the court's form will also provide the option to make changes to the account or to request deactivation.

After the account is created, the debtor(s) will begin to receive notices and certain orders filed ONLY by the Court. These emails will be sent at the end of each day. There is no limit to the number of times the PDF attachment can be viewed, and the debtor is welcome to print or save the PDF.

If email delivery fails, the Bankruptcy Noticing Center automatically sends notices and orders to a debtor by paper.

Please contact the Clerk's Office or visit the Court's Website at:

DEBTOR'S ELECTRONIC NOTICING REQUEST (DeBN)

 Note: If your mailing address has changed you MUST file a Debtor(s) Notice of Change of Address with the court. This form can be found on the court's website.

JOINT DEBTORS MUST FILE SEPARATE FORMS*

INITIAL REQUEST: (Check this box to begin receiving notices and certain orders from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via email)

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9036, I hereby request receipt of court notices and orders via email, instead of U.S. mail, from the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) through the U.S. Bankruptcy Court's Debtor Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (DeBN) program.

I understand that this request is limited to receipt of only notices and orders issued by the U. S. Bankruptcy Court and sent by the BNC; this also applies to any documents issued by the court in any current or future bankruptcy or adversary case from any bankruptcy court district in which I am listed with the same name and address, including cases where I am listed as a creditor. I will continue to receive documents filed by all other parties, such as the trustee and creditors, via U.S. mail or in person pursuant to court rules.

I understand that the first time the BNC receives an email bounce-back (undeliverable email); my DeBN account will be automatically disabled. I will then receive notices and orders via U.S. mail, and I must file an updated request form if I wish to reactivate my account.

I understand that enrollment in DeBN is completely voluntary, and I may file a request to deactivate my account at any time.

UPDATE TO ACCOUNT INFORMATION: (Check this box to make changes to your existing DeBN account)

I request the following update(s) to my DeBN account: (check one)

I have a new email address as indicated below.

I request verification of my existing DeBN account.

I request reactivation of my DeBN account so that I may receive court notices and certain orders via email instead of U.S. Mail.

Debtor(s) Name: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

REQUEST TO DEACTIVATE ELECTRONIC NOTICING: (Check this box to request deactivation of your DeBN account)

I request deactivation of my DeBN account. I understand that by deactivating my account, I will begin receiving notices and orders issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via U.S. mail, instead of email. I understand that I will continue to receive electronic notices until such time as the Court has deactivated my account. Note: This deactivation will occur within 48 hours after the date of this form.

I am a debtor in this bankruptcy case, or the debtor's authorized representative if the debtor is a business, and I have read the applicable section check-marked above and understand and agree to the terms and conditions set forth therein. Neither the U.S. Bankruptcy Court nor the BNC bears any liability for errors resulting from the information I have submitted on this form. I understand my account will be activated within 48 hours of the filing of this form. I certify under penalty of perjury that the information I am submitting to register for electronic notice is true and correct.
