If you have paid money for help in preparing your bankruptcy papers or for help in any part of your bankruptcy, the person that helped you is required to sign various documents stating exactly what you paid and what services you received.

If you have received assistance, even if you did not put it in your papers or paid for help in preparing your papers, please tell the Trustee at your first meeting of creditors. You should also contact Karen Riggs, paralegal, at karen.riggs@usdoj.gov or (313) 226-7259.
