Administrative order regarding orders barring debtors from refiling bankruptcy cases

U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
E.D. MICHIGAN-DETROIT
Administrative Order
No. 14-09

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING ORDERS
BARRING DEBTORS FROM REILING BANKRUPTCY CASES

From time to time, the bankruptcy court enters an order in a bankruptcy case barring the debtor from later filing another bankruptcy case for a specified time or based upon other terms or conditions set forth in the order. This administrative order is entered to make it clear that when a debtor who is subject to a bar order later attempts to file a bankruptcy petition in violation of the bar order, the Clerk of the Court is directed not to accept the bankruptcy petition for filing. In such circumstances, the Clerk of the Court is authorized to provide a copy of this administrative order to the debtor attempting to file the bankruptcy petition in violation of the bar order. This administrative order applies to all debtors who are presently subject to a bar order, and to any debtors who hereafter become subject to a bar order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

PHILLIP J. SHEFFERLY, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
