NOTICE TO APPROVED DEBTOR EDUCATION PROVIDERS

Effective December 1, 2013, amended Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(b)(7) will give an individual debtor the option of having an approved debtor education provider notify the court directly that the debtor has completed a post-petition instructional course concerning personal financial management. To directly notify the court of a debtor's course completion, an approved course provider will file a personal financial course certificate with the court. Approved course providers will need to register as a CM/ECF limited filer in each bankruptcy court where they are filing certificates.
